

LEADCenter

WIOA POLICY DEVELOPMENT

About the LEAD Center:

The LEAD Center is a policy development center focused on the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) that improves employment and economic advancement outcomes for people with disabilities by supporting effective WIOA implementation. LEAD is led by National Disability Institute (NDI) and is fully funded by the Office of Disability Employment Policy (ODEP), U.S. Department of Labor, Grant No. OD-38977-22-75-4-11.

Purpose of Dissemination:

To ensure material, tools, and resources from the LEAD Center reach and support diverse communities based on race/ethnicity, geography, gender, sexual orientation, disability, veteran-status, and those who have multiple intersecting identities.

Incase you missed it: Archive now available from the May 3rd White House virtual dialogue with the LEAD Center on “Advancing Financial Mobility within Native Communities.” Learn about strategies to support American Indian and Alaska Native individuals, including PWDs, with resources for economic self-sufficiency and on the importance of banking and financial education.

Read More :

<https://bit.ly/43vg80N>

“I know we’re not alone in wanting our daughter to have a bright financial future, so we want all parents of children with disabilities to know about the tools and resources available to help them prepare for and enter the world of work.” Read the new LEAD Center blog, “Fostering Kenley’s Financial Future: A Parent’s Perspective,” for real-life insight into how the Department Of Labor Financial Toolkit for PWDs can help plan and guide conversations about participation in the workforce.

Read More :

<https://bit.ly/30GfbhQ>

The new LEAD Center resource, “What Are My Housing Options?” is now available in Spanish! Learn how much to budget for housing costs, where to find mortgage support, and more. Available in Spanish and Chinese, too!

Read More :

<https://bit.ly/3MS8DLH>